

$400,000 Grade 3 Penn Mile Rescheduled for June 20

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

With significant rainfall in the local forecast for the next few days, the four turf stakes races carded for Friday, May 30th at Hollywood Casino at Penn National Race Course are now rescheduled for Friday, June 20th. First post that day will be 5 pm. The four turf stakes races are:

- $400,000 Grade 3 Penn Mile
- $150,000 Penn Oaks
- $75,000 Lyphard (Pennsylvania-Breds)
- $75,000 Alphabet Soup (Pennsylvania-Breds)

Horses entered in those four stakes are automatically re-nominated to their respective stakes races to be run June 20th. Additional nominations are also being accepted until Wednesday, June 11th. Entries for the entire June 20th card will be drawn June 13th.

Live racing remains scheduled for both Thursday, May 29th and Friday, May 30th. Thursday's card will be run as is, with all races on the main track. With the postponement of the four turf stakes, Friday's card will likewise be exclusively on the main track – the races scheduled as races 1 and 2, as well as races 7 through 11, will be run. Friday's first post remains 5 pm.

Larry Collmus, the voice of NBC Sports' Kentucky Derby, Preakness, and Breeders' Cup coverage will still be the special guest race caller for the four turf stakes rescheduled for June 20th.
